FILM SCREENING

Baseball in the Time of Cholera

Little league baseball player, JOSEPH ALVYNs, and Haiti's foremost human rights lawyer, MARIO JOSEPH, join together in the struggle for justice for victims of the cholera epidemic.

• Where: Anywhere you want!
  Your living room, theater, church basement, etc.
• When: December, January, or February
• WHY?
  To raise money to help people in Haiti get clean water, justice and compensation, and an apology to restore their dignity
  To keep the Bureau des Avocats Internationaux and Institute for Justice & Democracy in Haiti legal team fighting on the front lines to stop Haiti's cholera epidemic.
• How?
  To join this fight and host a screening, please E-mail: Amy@ijdh.org

BE AN ADVOCATE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. HOST A SCREENING TODAY.

Institute for Justice & Democracy in Haiti
www.ijdh.org